VON KAPP BY STRIKE FEAR

That Was What Caused Von Kapp to Come to Terms.

THE AGREEMENT

Its Basis Announced by the Present Government.

Berlin, March 15.—The counter-revolution in Germany appears to-night to have reached the end of the road. There is a strong probability that shortly one government will be in control and that President Ebert will come back to Berlin with his ministers.

A basis of agreement between the government set up by Dr. Wolfgang Kapp as Chancellor and the government of President Ebert is enunciated in a declaration issued by the present Berlin Government to-day. The declaration is made in the name of a settlement in view have been opened between the two governments at the instance of the latter and its assistants. But there is no confirmation of the counter-revolution as it is understood to be at Stuttgart. Briefly, Chancellor Kapp is agreed to the continuation of the "present imperial President," who is "President Ebert," he renounces the formation of a new ministry and places the direction of affairs in the hands of the under secretaries of state.

The agreement as set forth by Chancellor Kapp provides for a new constitution, which shall include "professional ministers," or experts; elections will be made for four years, the Reichstag and the Prussian National Assembly, and subsequently an election for "imperial President," who is "President Ebert," he renounces the formation of a new ministry and places the direction of affairs in the hands of the under secretaries of state.

On a significant clause in the present constitution, "The new and old governments," the new declaration that under present conditions a general strike is a crime against the German people.

Here is the explanation of the proposed settlement, for the general strike, as it has been before, was an effective weapon. Germany already has lost its sinister effect, for the strike in Berlin and most of the other principal cities of the country has been a set of misadventures, means of transportation, light and heat.

It was President Ebert and his Ministers who called upon the workers and the army to declare a general strike, and there was a last effective response to the call. Labor fiercely resisted the surrender of the revolution. Many numbers of men left their work and serious disorders occurred in various parts of the country. Chancellor Kapp and his supporters announced that they would deal harshly with strikes, and they returned to the existing order in Berlin. The labor leaders, however, in their resolution, voicing the sentiment of the other said:

"We would like to see the Socialists and workers, who think they can run the country. Nevertheless, the government's threat of drastic measures, it has been decided that neither the Kapp nor the Ebert government will be willing to put their weapons in the hands of the Soviet doctrine upon Germany."

THE NAVAL BILL

Attitude of Sections of Canada Puzzles House.

Ottawa, March 15.—(Press) The forthcoming Naval Bill, and the attitude of the members from various parts of the country, it is causing considerable discussion in and about the Parliament building. It is expected, will come from the House of Commons.

There is little doubt as to the attitude to be taken, by members from the Maritime provinces, and the Atlantic coast. They are said to be strong in favor of naval power.

The attitude of the United States, however, is said to be a matter of debate, as many of the members claim that any decision should be delayed until it is known what our neighbor to the south proposes to do.

It is also said that any decision should be delayed until it is known what our neighbor to the south proposes to do.

THE PEACE TREATY

U.S. Senate Reaffirms Split With Wilson.

Denies Obligation to Aid Other Country.

Washington, March 15.—Reaffirming its disagreement with President Wilson on the dominating issue of the Peace Treaty controversy, the Senate today, by a vote of more than two to one, the new article 10 to the treaty framed by Republican leaders, for the present, the projected effort for a compromise, that would secure the ratification of the treaty, was accepted generally as hastening the treaty toward another deadlock, from which it could be released only by a verdict at the polls next November.

Fourteen Democrats voted with the United Republican membership for the ratification of the treaty, while the Administration ranks fell far short of the number that would be required to ratify it. It was contended that others probably would swing over on the ratification of the treaty, but Administration leaders, backed by a definite assurance that the new reservation was unacceptable to the President, evidenced no apprehension that their forces would divide beyond the danger point.

The vote for adoption of the new article 10, which was a two-thirds majority, was 70 to 28, showed on its face a two-thirds majority for the new reservation, which means indicated that two-thirds would vote for ratification on that basis included in the treaty.

The reservation adopted after many efforts to modify it had been rolled under by the solid United Republican majority, follows in general from the one adopted last November. It is as follows:

"The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity and political independence of any other country by the employment of its military or naval forces, its resources or its other power of economic discrimination or to interfere in any way in controversies or disputes between nations, including all controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence of any other country of the league or not, under the provisions of article 10, or to employ its military or naval forces, or its resources, or its other power of economic discrimination, under any article of the treaty for the purpose of securing the exercise of full liberty of action, by act or joint reservation to provide."

The reservation was adopted by a vote of 46 to 23 with only 10 dissenting votes. The dissenters were: Messrs. Gore, Smith, of Georgia, and Walsh, of Massachusetts, voting in the affirmative.
